

Winning the Bid

Set Your Organisation's Course for a Winning Future

Best practice is crucial to the business process of winning. And the best bids come from well organised teams using a systematic approach with a commitment to the right resources, skills and systems...

MatchPoint's Winning the Bid one day workshop will leave you with the tools to diagnose your own organisation. The workshop is designed to identify if and where you need to make improvements in your overall bid project.

Overview

This workshop will combine best practice techniques with practical case studies drawn from a wide range of industry sectors. You will be able to strengthen your approach by learning from the successes and mistakes of market leaders.

Learning outcomes

This workshop will show you how to improve your organisation's approach to winning the bid. By focusing on the key elements of client pursuit, bid strategy, bid documents and presentations, we will help you to:

- Identify best practice
- Produce better bids
- Develop sharper skills
- Build stronger systems
- Define the right resources.
